Behavioural Finance & Business Valuation

Prof. Sanjay Bakshi is a well-known professor of finance and an accomplished investor.

His Behavioral Finance and Business valuation Course in MDI Gurgaon is quite popular.

This website has the lecture slides in proper sequence for the entire course.

Also included in the website is a book list (since he is a voracious reader), which would be particularly useful for those interested in business, finance and investing.

In the “Media” section of the website, you will find all his articles and interviews, which are wonderful learning resources.

The resources in the website cover a wide range of subjects - from economics, engineering, psychology, mathematics, probability, accounting, history, neurology, and evolutionary biology to teach students the narrower subjects of finance & investing.

FreeFinCal

If mutual fund investing is your thing, then this blog offers plenty of research, resources, and tools to analyze mutual funds and compare them.

However, the mutual fund screeners are not free. You pay Rs.100 for access.

The other posts are quite informative.

FreeFinCal is run by an IIT Madras professor.
